□ 1901

So the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated against:

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. GUTIERREZ. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably absent for votes. Had I been present, I would have voted "no" on rollcall votes 17 and 18.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Ms. LEE of California. Mr. Speaker, today I missed rollcall vote No. 17 on "Ordering the Previous Question" regarding H. Res. 43, and rollcall vote No. 18 on agreeing to H. Res. 43. Had I been present, I would have voted "no" on both votes.

TRAGEDY IN ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA

(Mr. YOUNG of Florida asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise to inform my colleagues of a tragedy that took place in St. Petersburg, Florida, this morning. Two St. Petersburg police officers, Sergeant Thomas Baitinger and Officer Jeffrey Yaslowitz, were killed in the line of duty and a Deputy U.S. Marshal, whose name I cannot release just yet, was seriously injured while serving a warrant this morning.

This is a sober reminder that the men and women who serve us as law enforcement officers put their lives on the line every day. In the past 24 hours alone, 11 law enforcement officers across our Nation have been shot in the line of duty.

It is my hope that my colleagues will keep the families of Sergeant Baitinger, Officer Yaslowitz and our Deputy U.S. Marshal in their prayers during this difficult time. It is also a good time to say thank you for all of those who serve us in uniform at home or abroad.

Mr. Speaker, I thank my colleagues for listening to this announcement, and I have to say, God bless the families of those who were killed and wounded.

COMMENDING MAYOR JOE GURECKY

(Mr. OLSON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. OLSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to commend Mayor Joe Gurecky, a statesman and a friend, for his service as the mayor of Rosenberg, Texas.

Mayor Gurecky has served his citizens for 16 years, first as a council member, then as the mayor from 1999 to 2011, making him the longest continually serving mayor in the history of Rosenberg. Mayor Gurecky recently announced that he wasn't going to seek reelection.

Joe Gurecky practiced four of the basic ideals of fiscal conservatism: accountability, fighting excessive spending, reducing taxes, and providing a safe community for his beloved city.

During his 12-year tenure, Mayor Gurecky oversaw a fourfold increase in property values and a 40 percent decrease in crime while simultaneously lowering taxes on the residents of Rosenberg.

Mayor Gurecky will be missed as the mayor. I thank him and his wife, Doris, for their service and wish them well in the future.

MOURNING THE LOSS OF DICK WINTERS

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, Shakespeare penned the words that gave title to a true story of the 101st Airborne during World War II. In "King Henry V," he wrote:

"We few, we happy few, we band of brothers;

"For he today that sheds his blood with me

"Shall be my brother."

Stephen Ambrose wrote a book that became the miniseries, "Band of Brothers." Dick Winters was part of that story. Actor Damien Lewis brought his character to life in the series, but for Pennsylvanians, Winters was a real-life hero, and his story, the stuff of legends. Winters died in Campbelltown, Pennsylvania. He was 92.

On D-day, June 6, 1944, Winters and his men parachuted in to take on a German artillery nest on Utah Beach. His troops from Easy Company fought through the Battle of the Bulge, the liberation of a death camp at Dachau, and made it to Hitler's Eagle's Nest at Berchtesgaden.

Winters never sought fame, never thought of himself as a hero, and characteristically he asked that his funeral be private. But as Tom Hanks put it, "When the world needed heroes, he served in a company of heroes."

Pennsylvania and the Nation mourn the loss of this "brother."

THE RAPISTS OF BANGLADESH

(Mr. POE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, Jess Smocek joined the Peace Corps in 2004 and went to Bangladesh to help that Third World country. Soon after arriving, a group of local men groped her sexually, however. She reported the improper conduct, but no one did anything. While in Bangladesh, Smocek felt unsafe and continued to report the hostile environment to the Peace Corps. But no one did anything.

Later, a group of criminals kidnapped her, beat her, raped her and abandoned her in an alleyway. And no one did anything. In fact, for political reasons, the Peace Corps did everything it could to ignore and cover up the dastardly deed, blaming the crime on the victim.
